Blue Horizon

“Beyond the Blue Horizon” glistened in silver script lettering above the Grand Chapter East with the background revealing the natural mountain scene (painted by Mike Floyd of Ina J. Reid Chapter) with a huge rainbow in the blue sky and clouds. The open pages of the Bible displayed “Psalms 121:1 – I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills.” The base of the podium was filled with green foliage plants among which were white and yellow mum plants. The green carpeting and white lattice fences with the illuminated posts provided an elegant setting for those occupying the Grand Chapter floor. The Star Point chairs were white with white lighted triangle tables placed behind the chairs with violets on the shelf of the triangles, the glass sides of which displayed the floral emblem appropriate to the Star Point stations. The West was decorated with the beautiful Effulgent Sun outlined by a Pentagon provided by Brother Robert Zastrow, Past Patron of Martha Washington Chapter, Green Bay.
