Grand Family 1975

The theme of the Grand Session “Reflections of Love” was given special prominence in the Grand Chapter East above the dais. Clusters of white mum plants decorated the edge of the dais. The railings were entwined with white satin ribbon and white bows attached at the upper and lower ends. Leone’s Love Bug signet was placed between the stairways with greenery at the base and an arrangement of red carnations and white flowers in front. Shrubs and grass occupied the sides of the lower level of the stairs. The Grand Chapter was roped off with a beautiful white fence and lighted posts. Triangles with mirrors reflecting the emblems of the stations graced the back of the Starpoint chairs. White Lily
