“Bridges of Love” in gold lettering and a picture of a Hummingbird was placed above the stage. A scenic mural and green trees formed the background for a Covered Bridge. The new ramp curved gracefully up to the stage from both sides. Hundreds of stuffed animals and games were displayed in front of the stage. Animals were also arranged on a small bridge over a make-believe stream, and on top of the lighted fence posts. Trilliums and daffodils lined the front of the stage, and the tables were skirted in gold material. The effulgent sun, greens and flowers decorated the west. Behind each Star Point’s chair was a brick planter filled with morning glories arranged against a trellis and lighted with the appropriate color.
