A banner above the stage announced “Bells of Peace” in silver letters. A large white dove holding a silver rope, attached to two huge open work white metal balls, and lighted white trees made up the stage setting. In front of the stage we enjoyed a pool with water lilies, plants, cattails, live goldfish and loons. The lighted fence around the Grand Chapter floor was decorated with doves, white flowers and bows. Lighted trees and the Effulgent Sun decorated the Grand Chapter West. Bells were played to open the Session.
