

Honor MCOWS Ceremony

Marshal: The position assigned to you is one of honor and responsibility. It is your duty to superintend and marshal all processions, assist in all public and private ceremonies, and perform such other duties as pertain to your office.

Chaplain: We recognize our dependence upon the source of all wisdom and strength, and often invoke the blessing of our Heavenly Father upon our work. It is your duty to lead the chapter in its devotions at the altar, and to perform such other duties as are appropriate to your office.

Organist: Your duty is embodied in the name of your office, to make our ceremonies as impressive and effective as we desire. It is important that you should be faithful in your trust.

Warder and Sentinel: You are respectively the inner and outer guards of our chapter. We rely upon you to preserve that secrecy which is essential to our proceedings; to see that our ceremonies are not interrupted by untimely alarms; and to perform such other duties as pertain to your offices. Prompt and faithful performance of these responsibilities will afford the best evidence of your attachment for the tenets and professions of our Order.
